Subject: Twenty-Seventh Appreciation Course in Parliamentary Processes and Procedures for Professors/Associate Professors/Assistant Professors of Universities/Colleges from 2 to 6 May, 2016

Sir/Madam,

As you are aware, the Bureau of Parliamentary Studies and Training (BPST) of the Lok Sabha Secretariat organizes, from time to time, Appreciation Courses in Parliamentary Processes and Procedures for Professors/Associate Professors/Assistant Professors. The basic objective of this Course is to enable the teaching community to have an insight into the working of Parliament and to enable them to help their students to gain adequate knowledge about Parliament and its functioning.

Nominations are invited from all Universities for the Twenty-seventh Appreciation Course scheduled to be organized by the BPST from 2 to 6 May, 2016. The last date for receipt of nominations is 21 March, 2016. Nominations duly signed/stamped by the Registrar/Director may kindly be sent to the undersigned as per enclosed proforma at the earliest and in any case not later than the last date for receiving nominations specified above.

Kindly note that the number of slots in the Appreciation Course is limited and that nominations will be considered on a first-come, first-served basis. Selected candidates may attend the Course only after receiving confirmation from the BPST.

It may also kindly be noted that the BPST does not provide any accommodation to the participants who will have to make their own arrangements for boarding, lodging and transport. All expenses in connection with their visit to Delhi and boarding, lodging and transport during their stay in Delhi shall be borne either by the sponsoring authority or by the participants themselves. The BPST, however, does not charge any Course fee.

Regards,

Yours faithfully
